COURSES 2015/2016

English Studies

The English Department of the TU Braunschweig invites refugees to participate in courses that are being offered this winter term.

Courses of English Studies at the TU include the following areas: Language, Linguistics, Didactics, and Literary- and Cultural Studies. There are places available in the following courses:

- Introduction to Literary Studies
- Introduction to Linguistics
- Introduction to Sociolinguistics
- Communication Practice
- Academic Writing
- Storytelling
- Intercultural Learning
- Teaching English in Primary School
- New British English Varieties
- Language Contrasting in Theory and Acquisition
- TUBS-Players (theatre group)

Please be aware that these are not language courses. Your language level should be at B2.

B2 is one of the CEFR levels described by the Council of Europe. B2-level speakers should be able to

- understand the main ideas of complex text
- interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity
- produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue

How to participate

If you are interested in taking one of our courses, please contact the coordinator of the English Seminar Sarah Ablett, either by email: s.ablett@tu-bs.de or in person. Office hours are Wednesdays from 2 pm until 3 pm (Room 216).
